

Wishful Thinking - 2010

with Annie Huntley
Saturday 10th & Sunday 11th July

In my adult life I have always lived by the sea, as have my children. This is but one of the images I have of my 2 children often seen looking longingly out to sea, hoping for a weather change! A wonderful journey in stumpwork for those yet to experience working figures in relief. The fishing creel is amazing - the lid actually opens, with towels - effectively worked in needle-lace, tumbling out and at rest with the sand. To complete the excellent detail in this design the sandals are totally dimensional. The completed design measures 28cm x 28cm.

Skill level: Intermediate to advanced embroiderers looking for something a little different and a new challenge.

Kit Cost: $78.75 You will receive a starter kit and then choose clothing colours to suit from Annie's shop at the event.. Annie will discuss options with students at the start of the workshop.
